AKRA receives Annual Report Award 2014

JAKARTA, September 25, 2015, (IDX: AKRA.IJ) PT AKR Corporindo Tbk (“AKRA”) has been awarded the Annual Report Award (“ARA”) 2014. Mr Haryanto Adikoesoemo, President Director of AKRA, received the award on 22nd September in a glittering function organised by the annual report committee in Jakarta.

AKR annual report was judged among the top 3 annual reports in the category of private non-financial and this is the second year in a row the company received the award.

“We are proud to win this award. We have been working over several years to increase our transparency in our communication including how we inculcate good corporate governance practices. Our annual report serves the purpose of providing relevant information about our business in both the management review and in the financial statement to create value to our stakeholders”, says Mr Haryanto.

The reasons for the award being given to AKRA, as noted by the annual report committee includes strong disclosure of good corporate governance (assessed against ASEAN corporate governance scorecard), in-depth management discussion and analysis and detailed financial information. AKRA believes that its annual report was recognized because of its successful initiatives to promote a better understanding of the company among its shareholders, investors and other stakeholders.
